

6. June 1952.

Dear General Smith:

My formal resignation from the Agency has probably reached you by now. This informal note is merely to say goodbye and to express my appreciation of the privilege of having worked with you.

Respectfully,

STAT

30 April 1952.

I would like very much to see him personally if he is in the vicinity of Washington